

Qwen's edits, on the working plane

Seventeen starting points, their mean edit, and the fixed point they contract toward.

Twelve are published or researcher-written seeds; five are decoded, including one placed on the attractor itself.

Working plane: caution x long term orientation where the measured drift is largest

